

A square maze with black walls. A thick blue line traces a path from a green circular start point at the top-left corner to a pink circular end point at the bottom-right corner. The path starts by moving right, then down through several turns, eventually reaching the end point after navigating a complex set of corridors and dead ends.

4-9 years | Easy